This will be your first working list of colleges, and, as you prepare it, remember that it is tentative. It will help your dean guide the discussion of your college process in the next round of meetings with you and your parents.

Given the types of colleges you are interested in and the recent admissions history of Harvard-Westlake students, please indicate at least 5 colleges in each of the 4 selectivity categories below:

Realistic Challenge:
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________

50/50:
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________

Likely:
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________

Most Likely:
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________
_________________________________  ______________________________________

This homework is due in the Deans’ Office on Thursday, March 21.